

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY
 GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS & SCIENCES
Language Proficiency Examination Form

Student Information:

Name:

Student ID:

Degree:

Major:

Examination Information:

Examination Date:

Language of Proficiency:

Native Speaker

Non-Native Speaker

Department or Faculty Administering Examination:

Method of Examination:

Written Examination

Oral Examination

Final Results:

Passed

Failed

The above named student's foreign language proficiency has been examined with the following results:

- EXCELLENT: Outstanding grammatical and idiomatic usage with rare errors. Excellent command of vocabulary and ease of expression, accurate pronunciation, on all levels necessary for professional international service.
- VERY GOOD: Strong grammatical and idiomatic usage, despite some inaccuracies, on levels pertinent to professional international service. Some signs of fluency and style, adequate pronunciation.
- GOOD: Acceptable grammatical and idiomatic usage, despite some inaccuracies, on levels pertinent to professional international service. Some signs of fluency and style, adequate pronunciation.
- FAIR: Limited grammatical and idiomatic usage, with flaws in pronunciation, but generally understandable. Use of Anglicisms. Ability to satisfy minimal routine needs for social conversation and very limited professional requirements.
- POOR: Unsatisfactory grammatical and idiomatic usage. Grave inaccuracies in pronunciation. Inability to communicate on a level pertinent to minimal professional needs.

Students receiving of excellent, very good, and good will have satisfied the degree requirement.

Comments: (Please include additional comments on the reverse)

Examining Department or Faculty

Date

Director of Graduate Studies

Date